The 25c Pictorial Review Spring Fashion Book and the 15c Pictorial Review for April. The two for 25c. Street Floor—Rear of Elevators.

Palais Royal $16.95

Suits $15

For Tomorrow Only.

These Suits—at $16.95—have been the surprise of this new spring season—in the stores and the homes.

Possibly the reader has not yet critically inspected these $16.95 Palais Royal Suits. Read on—and learn of them.

1—Felled by hand and silk sewed.

2—The Suits usually sold at less than $20 are cotton sewed and not hand-felled.

3—The Taffeta Silk strapings—the trimmings—are of double fabric, silk stitched.

4—The Suits generally advertised as bargains have stripings of single fabric.

5—The peat dye cygne linings are fast dye and tailored to guarantee durability.

6—The lining of the ordinary low-priced suit is one of the weak spots.

Third Floor—6 Elevators.

Hats $5

Special for Tomorrow.

A few dozens made up by the Palais Royal milliners, each differently trimmed, each a gem.

2—The late purchases of Untrimmed Hats and Trimmings at fractional prices enable these gems at only $5.

On exhibition and for sale tomorrow—Friday—morning promptly at 9 o'clock.

3—While each hat is "a gem," the quantity is limited—and early visitors will find best value.

Purchasers of Suit or Dress advertised for tomorrow's sale are entitled to hat made to order.

4—The special price—$5.00—only for orders given here on Friday, tomorrow.

Third Floor—6 Elevators.

Specialty Store Dresses Intended for New York.

$9.98

It's only a question of hours—the distribution of these seventy-five (75) Dresses. Their history is to be kept secret—it can only be written that they come to the Palais Royal of Washington, instead of going to a leading specialty store of 5th avenue, New York.

Types As Illustrated. Materials and Colors.

Extreme—but fashionably so. The type bouffant is exemplified la Paris and 5th avenue. Rich gold braids and beads embellish some of these dresses. Tomorrow's early visitors will carry off Cloth Dresses, with vestees of rich silks and satins, exquisitely trimmed. Simple, but elegant—White Serge Dresses, the bouffant skirts with rich satin foundation.

On sale tomorrow morning—Third Floor—at $9.98 for choice. None C. O. D.—none exchanged—no alterations—no mail orders.

HOLDS LORIMER FREE OF ANYTHING CROOKED

Receiver Niblack Blames Wrecking of Chicago Bank on Charles B. Munday.

CHICAGO, March 23.—When the trial of William Lorimer, former president of the defunct La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank, on charges of conspiracy in connection with the failure of the bank in 1913, was resumed today, W. C. Niblack, receiver of the bank, who has been on the witness stand for nearly two days, continued his testimony.

Not a Thing Crooked.

In answer to a question yesterday by Albert Fink, attorney for Lorimer, as to whether he found any "crooked" or "dishonest" thing done by Lorimer, Niblack answered, "Not a thing." When asked what was the cause of the failure of the bank, Niblack replied:

"One Charles B. Munday stole it blind. He robbed it to death."

Termed an Expert "Milkman."

"Munday got money out of that bank in every conceivable way. I never found a way to 'milk' a bank by a man on the inside that Munday did not use," said Mr. Niblack.

Munday, former vice president of the bank, was sentenced to prison recently on charges in connection with the failure of the bank.

Great Sensation Created by the Arrest of Prominent Editors.

STOCKHOLM, March 23.—Three socialist editors, Hoegland, Ojgenlund and Hedon, have been arrested on a charge of high treason in consequence of the passing of a resolution at a conference of Swedish socialist organizations that a general strike and a revolution be started in case Sweden enters the war. The arrests followed a demand by royalist newspapers that the leaders of the conference be punished.

A great sensation has been aroused over the incident, as Mr. Hoegland is one of the most prominent members of the Swedish parliament.

DATES NAMED FOR DRILL OF HIGH SCHOOL CADETS

May 31 and June 1 for White Schools; June 5 for Colored Companies.

With the naming today of dates for the annual competitive drill of the High School Cadets of this city, arrangements for that event, probably of the greatest general interest of anything in the school calendar, are now being made. Stephen E. Kramer, assistant superintendent of schools, who is directly in charge of military work, has the arrangements in charge. May 31 and June 1 have been selected as the time for the drill for the cadets of the white schools, while June 5 was the date chosen for the competition of the colored cadets. The drill will take place again this year at the American League Ball Park.

Because of the unusually large number of companies in the regiments this year (sixteen), certain problems have arisen as to just how the drill will be conducted. There will be no great difficulties, however, it is believed.

The annual indoor rifle shoot is scheduled to be held at the armory of the National Guard of the District of Columbia March 29 and 31 and April 1.

Gov. Ralston Declines to Honor Request for Head of Order.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 23.—Gov. Samuel M. Ralston has refused to honor a requisition for the return of John W. Talbot of South Bend, head of the Order of Owls, who is wanted in Illinois for alleged defamation of character of officers of the Loyal Order of Moose. The requisition was not in proper form, Gov. Ralston held, as it was signed by the lieutenant governor of Illinois instead of the governor. When the corrected papers are presented Gov. Ralston will consider other aspects of the case.

Mrs. Cornelia Stockham Baker, eighty-three, mother of Dr. Thomas Stockham Baker, headmaster of Tome School, died at Port Deposit.
